About the expo ...

Now in its fourth year, the annual Healthy & Fit Magazine Expo returns to the Lansing Center on September 25, promising to be the biggest and best so far!

This year we've decreased the amount of paperwork for vendors, increased the amount of advertising we're dedicating to the event, and we are maximizing your investment by targeting Healthy & Fit Magazine's extensive readership base as we direct them to attend the event.

Look for the following in 2010:

- More than 100 vendors
- More than 3,000 attendees
- Interactive workout areas
- Kids' games
- Our popular demonstration stage
- The famous inflated Tiki-head rock wall
- Exclusive product sales
- Health food demonstrations
- Live aerobic, cardio hip-hop and Zumba workouts
- Capital City River Run registration
- More giveaways
- Cutting edge health and fitness information
- Kayak demonstrations on the Grand River
- Olympic-sanctioned weight lifting
- Inflated obstacle course for all ages
- An easier-than-ever registration process

There is plenty more to list.

Best of all, everything is FREE for attendees. The public will seek out your services and products without having to pay an entrance fee.
